Vacation Bible School

Oops! We have changed our vacation Bible school to Kingdom of the Son; The Lord's Prayer Safari! It will be the July 6-10. Adult leaders are needed, as well as middle school and Sr. High Student leaders.

Please let Cindy Guley know if you are interested in helping with this adventure!

May Children's Devotional: TIDAL WAVE

Bible Reading: Matthew 7:24-29

The kitchen door slammed shut behind Jonathan. "Hi, Mom," he said. "Hi, buddy," replied Mom. "Need a glass of milk and a few crackers?" Jonathan nodded and plopped down in a chair while his mother poured the milk. "You won't believe what happened to my project today," he said. "I worked a long time creating that ancient Mayan city." "Yes, and you did a great job on its temple and palace and all those other buildings," said Mom. "So what happened?" "After you dropped me off at school, Ross came over and started asking questions about the project," said Jonathan. "Well, he was carrying a bowl of water to use on his own project. Before I had two words out of my mouth, someone bumped into Ross, and my Mayan city was hit by a tidal wave." "Oh dear!" exclaimed Mom. "It washed the ground right out from under the main temple," continued Jonathan. "When I was working on it a few weeks ago, somebody told me I should use plaster instead of sand for the ground. I should have listened."

"Well, I'm sorry your project was messed up," sympathized Mom. "Me, too," said Jonathan. But then he laughed. "My teacher said it was the most realistic disaster project she'd seen, but that I should always remember sand doesn't make a very good foundation for building. She said things don't last unless they stand on a strong foundation." Mom nodded. "Your story reminds me of the Bible passage that talks about the importance of building our lives on the right foundation," she said. "If we trust in anything or in anybody other than Jesus, it's as though we're building on sand."

The only lasting foundation is the Lord Jesus Christ. " Jonathan grinned. "Yeah," he said, "so I guess I shouldn't feel too bad. Maybe I chose the wrong foundation for my project, but I'm trusting Jesus, so have the right one for my life." "Yes," agreed Mom. "That's much more important."

Memorize:

No other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 1 Corinthians 3:11

Remember Mother's Day May 10!

Memorize and say this poem to your Mom for a special present!

You make me smile when I am sad
Your kiss makes pain just disappear
Your twinkling eyes show you're so glad
That I'm your child each time I'm near
